

5 Steps: Preparing for the Move

While you focus on the next transition in your life, behind the scenes we are working on executing a plan to make your move flawless. Before the move even begins, we:

1. Consult with the client about which items should be packed and moved.
2. Work with family members to determine which belongings they wish to keep.
3. Assess which items to sell.
4. Determine which items to donate.
5. Dispose of what belongings are left.

The Move:

Making it as smooth as possible

Whether you're an empty nester downsizing or seeking assistance in relocating parents, we make moving as smooth as possible. We:

- Prepare for the moving company, by sorting, labeling and organizing possessions
- Work with you to determine which items much receive extra care, such as medications, jewelry and other family heirlooms
- Coordinate with the moving company(ies)
- Arrange for disconnection and reconnection of utilities
- Prepare the new home so it is ready when the client arrives (set up furniture, TV, etc.)
- Supervise moving company and unbox smaller items
- Prepare the new residence so clients feel at home the minute they arrive

Liquidation:

Maximizing the value of your belongings

We work closely with you, as well as your family members and attorneys, to tailor a plan that best outlines who you wish to receive your property. We:

- Distribute items to family and friends
- Coordinate online auctions
- Utilize second-hand stores for unwanted items with value
- Donate and dispose unwanted belongings
- Ensure only professionals will be in the home and handle belongings with utmost respect

Preparation:

Planning a Home's Sale

We get a home ready to sell by coordinating a team of professionals who will get the job done. We:

- Work with listing agents to assess what updates and preparations must be done to home
- Coordinate and execute repairs if necessary
- Organize professional painters if necessary
- Assess furniture needs and stage the home for best first impression
